Executive Privilege

-Much as we hate the Dems, we carried over their tradition.

-Is that right?

-Yeah, the blowjob.

-More unitary now. Restricted to our sex.

-Yeah, women are cesspools, aren't they. Disgusting!

-Shhhh. Walls have ears.

-I'm present because they have rears.

-That's not even remotely funny. Even illogical. Beats me how half senior staff and most juniors in love with you.

-You could find out.

-Promised to another.

-Too bad. I hafta break anyway. Just about everything is sore.

-William Blake claimed excess leads to Christ...something like that.

-He also said Daisy Chain, who made thee. Dost thou know who made thee?

-I'm impressed.

-I like to read poetry when I'm jerking off. Besides, our foremost bible thumper in this office repeats that excess thing excessively.

-What's he thumping it with?

-Not enough.
